Counsels on Health – EGW

We are commanded, whether we eat or drink or whatever we do, to do all to the glory of God. How many have conscientiously moved from principle rather than impulse, and obeyed this command to the letter? How many of the youthful disciples in --- have made God their trust and portion, and have earnestly sought to know and do His will? There are many who are servants of Christ in name, but who are not so in deed. Where religious principle governs, the danger of committing great errors is small; for selfishness, which always blinds and deceives, is subordinate. The sincere desire to do others good so predominates that self is forgotten. To have firm religious principles is an inestimable treasure. It is the purest, highest, and most elevated influence mortals can possess. Such have an anchor. Every act is well considered, lest its effect be injurious to another and lead away from Christ.-- Testimonies for the Church, vol. 2, p. 129 (1868).

Members: Please bring extra to fellowship meals to welcome & provide for our many visitors.

Pre-teen/Teen ohana (12-18yr olds) starting May, 5pm at the Matsuo's home. We'll be using the book "The 6 Most Important Decisions You'll Ever Make" by Sean Covey. This book covers life issues that teens go through, including peer Pressure, relationships, dating, self-esteem, and addictions. To maintain free sharing and asking of questions by the kids, we respectfully ask parents to make plans to be elsewhere during the time of the ohana. Please see Leon or Jodi if you plan on having you child(ren) attend and if you have questions.

In an effort to promote a reverent atmosphere, and to train our children to be attentive listeners, please have your children refrain from playing on electronics during church services, and from eating in the sanctuary.
